

While it is our intention to serve the posted menu each day at every school, supply chain issues are creating challenges with these efforts. When menu alterations are necessary, we will always attempt to substitute the scheduled menu item with another that is as similar as possible to the extent we are able to do so. Please know that we will always provide wholesome meals each and every day.

Thank you 😊